

COVERWELL PERSONAL ACCIDENT INSURANCE POLICY SUMMARY

Please note that this Summary document does not contain the full terms and conditions of the contract, which can be found in the Policy document. This Policy Summary does not form part of the Policy document. A copy of the Policy is available on request.

The Policy is a personal accident insurance contract that provides cover in the event of accidental bodily injury, which results in death, specific permanent disability, specified fractures or Hospitalisation. The sections that apply to your insurance will be stated in the Schedule.

The purpose of this Policy Summary is to help you understand the insurance by setting out the significant features, benefits, limitations and exclusions. You should still read the Policy Document for a full description of the terms of the insurance, including the policy definitions.

The policy is underwritten by certain Underwriters at Lloyd's. Both the Society of Lloyd's and Underwriters at Lloyd's are authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority

Key limitations

- An insured person can only claim under one of the catastrophic injuries, permanent disabilities or accidental death benefits for bodily injury resulting from one accident.
- If an insured person dies within 13 weeks of bodily injury, as long as death was a result of bodily injury, the accidental death benefit will be paid and not the catastrophic injuries or permanent disabilities benefits.
- Cover will finish if the policyholder lives outside the territory for more than 180 consecutive days, unless agreed prior by the underwriters.

Law and Jurisdiction

The policy will be governed by the law and courts of the country where the policyholder normally lives, as long as it is within the United Kingdom. Other territories will need to be agreed.

Period of Insurance

Provided premiums are paid on time, the period of insurance will renew automatically each month. You may wish to review and update your cover periodically to ensure it remains adequate for your needs.

Cooling-off period and your right of cancellation

If the cover does not meet the policyholder's needs, the policyholder may return the policy and schedule to us within 15 days of the cover starting or the day on which the policyholder receives the schedule, whichever is the later. We will refund all premiums paid within 30 days of the date we receive the notice of cancellation from the policyholder. The policyholder should contact Coverwell to obtain a refund.

The policyholder can cancel the policy at any time after the 15 days' cooling-off period by contacting Coverwell. If the policy is cancelled, the policyholder should write to their chosen bank or building society asking them to stop taking premiums from their account.
